Dear Parent / Guardian,

Parkwood Middle has chosen to use one (or more) of the following web site(s) listed below for educational purposes. These web sites require the teacher/school to provide your child with a username/password to access the site and its content. The information can include a student's first and last name, his/her ID number, and the school name. This information is kept confidential by the site and is not used for any purpose other than for account creation.

Because your child is or may be under the age of 13, the Children's Internet Protection Act (CIPA) and Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA), federal legislation which aim to protect children when using the Internet, require that Union County Public Schools notify you and/or obtain written permission for your child to use the web site(s). The intent of this letter is to serve as parent notification to the use of this/these web site(s) and as signed consent from you, the parent, for your child to be able to use this/these site(s).

Web site(s) to be used for the purpose of instruction that require notice of use and/or written consent to use are as follows:

Web Site	Educational Use/Purpose
Animoto, Quizlet, Voki, Bitstrips, Padlet, Vocaroo, Anneberg Learner, ScreenCastify, PheT Interactives, Science News for Kids, NewsELA, PowToon, SpanishSpanish.com, SAS Curriculum, Code.org, Socarative, Epals, WeVideo, Read Theory, Vocabulary.com, Prezi	These websites may be used for lessons, projects, presentations, class/homework activities, enrichment, remediation, interventions, and or independent study.

Please contact your child's teacher at any time regarding privacy questions or concerns, or to request to review what personally identifiable information has been provided by the school.

Sincerely,
Dr. Jeff Kraftson
