V. Old Business

Dress Code update: The dress code group updated their requests. The group today was broken into 2 groups to look at the PP presentation to give there feedback, likes , dislikes, changes they would like to see. Mrs. Markstein, counselor with the Dress Code group explained what the changes were about and what they were trying to accomplish. The groups had lively discussions on how they felt about the dress code in general, and if there needs to be any adjustments. There are different ideas among the group on how free should we be with our dress code.

VI. Indicators to Assess-Create-Monitor

Indicators Assessed

A4.01 The school implements a tiered instructional system that allows teachers to deliver evidence-based instruction aligned with the individual needs of students across all tiers.(5117)

A4.16 The school develops and implements consistent, intentional, and on-going plans to support student transitions for grade-to-grade and level-to-level.(5134)

Objectives Planned For

Monitor (updates made)

We are moving ahead with MTSS. A form has been produced that the teachers will use to submit student's names to the team. There is also a video that will be shared with the teachers to give examples of what data will be needed for the team to make decisions.

The student ambassadors will begin their meetings with the 8th grade homerooms, and we will be adding a smaller mentor group to offer a one on one for the upcoming at risk students.
