- Grading High Schools- PRHS received B with the 15 point scale, but with a 10 point scale it is a C.
- 10-point grading scale- Dr. Harris reviewed the new 10 point scale.

- Old Business

- New business

- Parent Concerns- the 10 point grading scale will be implemented for all high school students. Dr. Harris will share additional information as he receives it. Teachers please share with all students (especially freshman) that they have two hours to take an exam, to avoid any misunderstandings with students thinking they can have four hours. Mrs. Daniels reviewed the testing administration process. Athletic Boosters will sell brick pavers for the Bone Yard so they can build field houses.
- Student Concerns- None at this time
- Teacher Concerns- To mention to freshman what is different here from the Middle School. Some of these changes are NC State mandated, like the test types (EOC, NC State Final, Teacher Made).
 - Site Based Meetings- 6:30 p.m. or 4:30 p.m. After discussion with students and working parents Dr. Harris decided to leave it at 6:30 p.m.
- Administrator Concerns- None at this time.

- Special Programs / Upcoming Events

- Athletics- Basketball, wrestling, swimming and indoor track are finishing up this week.
- Theater- Two performances in March
- Art- Very Special Art on April 2nd and Edible Art this Friday.
- Chorus- Nothing at this time
- Band- Nothing at this time
- Community Partners- Special Olympics

- Conclusion

- Next meeting – March 10, 2015
- Mrs. Reed made the motion to adjourn and Mrs. Davidson seconded.

Respectfully submitted,

Fawnee Bounds, Secretary
