Potty Report says most kids have exhausted their potty breaks in English and Math c. Attendance competition should start soon
3:30-3:40	Dress Code/Religious Exemption Appeals Process <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● UCPS has noticed an uptick of news reports on student dress code. Dress codes are designed more against girls than boys; unfair bias against women. ● We address the garment not the body. ● A clause will be added that if a student wants to challenge the dress code, they can appear in front of the SIT at the meeting at the end of the month. ● A religious exemption can be submitted in writing and would be reviewed and decided by the SIT team.
3:30 - 3:55	Student Support <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Discussion and action plan for how faculty/staff, students, and community will support the Bello Family ● Financial needs to cover the medical bills for the family:

	The Kaplan's are going to start a GoFundMe <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Bella thinks we should do something within the school to support the family; maybe a basketball game or bring back the kickball event that was used for the Demings a couple of years ago.• Organize a meal-train outside of the school through the PTSO• Harvey's Vision:<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Parents-organize the meals○ Students-organize a fundraiser (LivingTree, GoFundMe, Kickball tournament, 50/50 raffle at Porter Ridge game-need to run the money through PTSO)○ Staff-organize giftcards or other ways we can support with gas cards or needs to cover the family (BETA is going to start the giftcard campaign and will share with staff)
3:55 - 4:00	Closing, Reflection, Open Forum
