PIEDMONT CAMP GOAL

The goal is to provide each camper with a positive, fun-filled learning experience. Camp is designed to teach fundamentals and to provide campers advanced instruction.

Jay Fitts

Camp Director

Coach Fitts is entering his third season as the Head Boys' Varsity Basketball Coach at Piedmont High School. In his first season at Piedmont, Fitts led the Panthers to a second place finish in the Southern Carolina Conference, finishing 6-4 in league play. Overall, the Panthers finished 16-11 on the season advancing to the NCHSAA 3-A State Playoffs. In the first round, Piedmont defeated Pisgah HS to capture their first home playoff victory in 25 years. This season, Fitts led the Panthers to their second straight playoff appearance finishing 16-10 and 10-4 in league play. Prior to arriving at Piedmont, he was the Head Girls' Basketball Coach at Forest Hills High School. Prior to taking over the girls program at Forest Hills, Coach Fitts served as a varsity assistant for 2 years. He has served as the Head Boys' Basketball Coach at Porter Ridge and Bessemer City High School, as well as the Head Girls' Basketball Coach at Weddington HS. Coach Fitts has led his teams to 8 state tournament playoff appearances and brings a wealth of camp experience serving as director of the Weddington Warrior Sports Camps for two years. He has also worked camps at Siena College, the University of Connecticut, Providence College, and Western Connecticut State University.
