Subject: Update on Using NCEES for Remote and Blended Instructional Settings

Please be advised that Dr. Robert Sox, NCDPI Director of Educator Standards and Evaluation, has provided the official guidance for conducting observations in remote and blended settings. You may visit <https://sites.google.com/dpi.nc.gov/ncees-information-and-resource/covid-2020> to access a narrative entitled “Supporting Remote and Blended Instruction Using NCEES” and a video entitled “When and Where to Look”. The guidance from NCDPI provides the flexibility of using the NCEES to conduct in-person and virtual observations.

You may also visit <https://www.ucps.k12.nc.us/Page/5888> to access evaluation timelines and additional resources.

Thank you for your ongoing support and collaboration. Take care; be safe; and have a great day!

Growing Possibilities.
