

Reading Meaningfully at Home

Before Reading:

- Look at the cover. What do you think might happen in this story?
- Picture Walk (Get your mind ready to read)

During Reading:

- When and where is the story happening?
- What do you think might happen next?
- How does the character feel? How do you know?
- Does the character change?
- Do you see any sight words?
- Do any words rhyme?

After Reading:

- Does the character change?
- What if your favorite part? Why?
- What did this story make you think about? Another book? Another character?
- Retell the story (What happened in the beginning, middle and end?)

Reading Meaningfully at Home

Before Reading:

- Look at the cover. What do you think might happen in this story?
- Picture Walk (Get your mind ready to read)

During Reading:

- When and where is the story happening?
- What do you think might happen next?
- How does the character feel? How do you know?
- Does the character change?
- Do you see any sight words?
- Do any words rhyme?

After Reading:

- Does the character change?
- What if your favorite part? Why?
- What did this story make you think about? Another book? Another character?
- Retell the story (What happened in the beginning, middle and end?)

Reading Meaningfully at Home

Before Reading:

- Look at the cover. What do you think might happen in this story?
- Picture Walk (Get your mind ready to read)

During Reading:

- When and where is the story happening?
- What do you think might happen next?
- How does the character feel? How do you know?
- Does the character change?
- Do you see any sight words?
- Do any words rhyme?

After Reading:

- Does the character change?
- What if your favorite part? Why?
- What did this story make you think about? Another book? Another character?
- Retell the story (What happened in the beginning, middle and end?)

