CAREER OF THE WEEK

“Career of the Week – Computer & Information Research Scientists”

A Computer & Information Research Scientist conducts research into fundamental computer and information science as theorists, designers, or inventors. Develop solutions to problems in the field of computer hardware and software. Some of the tasks they do are analyze problems to develop solutions involving computer hardware and software, apply theoretical expertise and innovation to create or apply new technology, such as adapting principles for applying computers to new uses, conduct logical analyses of business, scientific, engineering, and other technical problems, formulating mathematical models of problems for solution by computers, design computers and the software that runs them, and participate in multidisciplinary projects in areas such as virtual reality, human-computer interaction, or robotics. Most Computer & Information Research Scientists have a master’s degree, and some require a Ph.D., M.D., or J.D. (law degree). The average salary for a Computer & Information Research Scientists for the state of North Carolina is $119,370 and $94,310 for the nation.

MURAL CONTEST

A decorative border with a repeating pattern of colorful leaves and flowers in shades of blue, purple, pink, yellow, and green, set against a white background. The border frames a central dark blue rectangular area.

World Language Mural Contest

The World Language Department would like
To invite all students to participate on the creation of a mural for F-Hall. Student interested in participating must submit a draft or a picture of their design ideas by January 31. A school committee would be choosing finalists with a final vote by PRHS students. Use this google link to submit your design.

PRHS FRENCH WEEK

National French Week at PRHS

The French club posted French phrases often used in English around the school as clues for «la question du jour»

Winners enjoyed macarons from Kori's Kakes, as did French students who ordered them.

Chef Templeton and her «sous-chefs» did a demonstration and tasting of Crêpes Suzette.

French classes were treated to a trip to Pirate Cove Café to purchase drinks or snacks.

Merci, Chef!

*Merci and Bravo to Madame Nardell

Weekly Athletic Calendar

Check out next week's athletic schedule. Tickets for athletic events can only be purchased online. Cash is not accepted. Each School System has their own ticketing system. If you have any questions, reach out to the home school's athletic director.
