By: Anna Land

Howler: Why do we have the D.A.R.E program?

Officer Vic: To educate children on the bad effects of drugs and alcohol and tobacco as well as bullying and peer pressure. Show them how to build self-confidence, and to let them know that police officers are here to help and to not be afraid of them.

Howler: When did the the D.A.R.E. program first start?

Officer Vic: The early 1980's in L.A., ,California.

Howler: If you were to ask a 5th grade participating student a question before their first lesson, what would you ask them?

Officer Vic: What do you think the D.A.R.E program is and why do you think it's important? Are you excited?

Howler: What is it like being a D.A.R.E officer?

Officer Vic: The best thing ever, It's like being the president, an athlete, and a superhero all in one!

Howler: Are there any changes you would like to make to the D.A.R.E. program?
