The Womanless Beauty Pageant is going to be held Saturday, March 12 at 630pm in the auditorium. Mr. Pusser will open the building at 5:30pm. Mr. Weiss will lock up the building when the activity is over. Everything else seems to be in place, we hope for the best!

A Nominating Committee should present names for the 2011-2012 Executive Board nominations to the April 12, 2011 Cougar Council General Board Meeting. Since so few of us were in attendance, we all agreed to be on the nominating committee.

Senior Gift: Teresa Edwards made a motion to purchase mugs for the graduating Seniors and have them etched by the Crystal Shoppe, as was done for the Seniors of 2009 and 2010. Adam Dailey seconded the motion, which was approved by unanimous vote. Mugs were purchased from Dollar Tree and delivered to Crystal Shoppe.

Teacher Appreciation Week is May 2-6. Adam Dailey suggested that we hold the teacher appreciation luncheon in the courtyard, with a picnic theme on Thursday, May 4 from 11:50am until 2pm. Final decisions will be made at the April meeting.

Bus Driver Gifts were discussed, but the Board hesitated to vote on any decisions until after the Womanless Beauty Pageant, being unsure the amount of funds that would be raised. Elissa Sturdivant suggested mugs with a gift card to Bojangles or Chick-fil-A. National Bus Driver Day is March 18, a bit too early for us to do anything by then. After much discussion, we thought it best that this decision be made at the April meeting.

Teresa Edwards made a motion that we adjourn our meeting, which passed unanimously, after a second by virtually all other members and unanimous vote; therefore, the meeting was adjourned at 8:28pm.

Next scheduled Meeting Tuesday April 12, 2011 in the Media Center 7pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Teresa Edwards, PTSO Secretary
