This week is also Red Ribbon Week so students are encouraged to incorporate a little red in each outfit to take a stance against drug abuse. (See the article on page 9 below.) There will be a pop-up raffle one day during the week - students who are dressed up in the spirit theme that day can enter their name to win a gift card. Wearing some red that day also will get their name in twice!

Red Ribbon Week

Each year Red Ribbon Week occurs October 23-31. It is our nation's longest running drug prevention awareness program. This year's theme is "Drug Free Looks Like Me™." This week, in an effort to raise awareness, we are asking everyone to incorporate a little red into their outfit each day (students may integrate red into their spirit week outfits!) Wearing red or red ribbons during this week represents our pledge to live drug free. We will be highlighting facts and myths about drugs and alcohol during lunches and we will have a table with alcohol and drug education pamphlets that students can browse through and read. For more information about Red Ribbon Week visit their website at https://www.redribbon.org/.

Troubleshooting Messages re: Missing Application Documents

In the coming weeks, if you receive an alert from a college that they haven't received an application document, don't panic! Colleges are often flooded with documents, especially close to an application deadline, and their teams need adequate time to process the influx.

In almost all instances, the required documents were in fact received by the application processing department but the college's applicant portal either hasn't updated to reflect receipt, or there's a possible mismatch between the personal information students used on their applications and what's listed in Scoir (think: first name and last name, email, DOB, etc.).

Check your SCOIR account to see when documents were submitted. If 3 or 4 weeks has passed since the submission, call the admissions office to confirm receipt of your items.

The dollars raised are invested in teacher and staff appreciation initiatives, special programs, specific school needs and student scholarships. The CHS PTSO is dedicated to supporting our teachers, staff, students and CHS as a whole.
