Dear Union County High School Seniors,

On behalf of the Delta Xi Nu Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., we cordially invite you to participate and showcase your writing skills in our Annual International High School Essay Contest. This annual competition is done in accordance with the observance of our Annual Achievement Week where we not only get the opportunity to recognize our brothers for their remarkable service to the community, but we honor the future leaders of our world such as yourself.

This year's essay topic is: "What impact do you believe that Social Media is having On Mental Health and Why is it Important to Address this issue?"

Our contest offers a fantastic opportunity for you to demonstrate your intellectual abilities and compete for significant prizes and scholarship awards. Winners at the local level will advance to the District competition where they can compete to earn scholarships. The District winner will then be submitted to the international competition for a chance to win between $1,000 and $5,000 in scholarships.

Contest Guidelines:

- Essay Length: 700-750 Words
- Deadline: October 31st by 11:59p.m.
- Submission: Email completed packets to thedeltaxinu@gmail.com or mail them directly to the chapter at P.O. Box 1429, Monroe, NC 28111

For more information and to download the official guidelines, please visit the following link: <https://2024hsessaycontest.tiiny.site>

We encourage all seniors to participate in this exciting contest and showcase their talent. Good luck!

Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Incorporated is the first international fraternal organization to be founded on the campus of a historically black college. Omega Psi Phi was founded on November 17, 1911, at Howard University in Washington, D.C. The founders were three Howard University undergraduates, Edgar Amos Love, Oscar James Cooper, Frank Coleman, and their faculty adviser, Dr. Ernest Everett Just. With a distinct focus on community development, mentoring, addressing health disparities, and scholarship, Omega continues to address collective inequities wherever they can be found.
