November Birthdays

1st - Mrs. Schoeppner - EC

23rd - Mr. Parker - 5th grade

News from the Front Office

Thank you for helping us encourage 'Independence' within our students by either dropping them off in the morning in the car rider line or the front lobby. We can no longer allow parents to walk students to classrooms. Safety is our number one concern and we also want to protect our teachers' instructional time.

We love our parents and appreciate each one of you so much, however, we need to eliminate the number of classroom interruptions each day. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation!

Fairview's Winter Festival is coming up! This is a free event for our community. Each child will receive a stocking and can walk around the park to have it filled, courtesy of our local churches. Santa will be stopping by to read a book, Fairview students will sing carols and there will be a Christmas tree lighting!

5pm-7pm at the Fairview Park
(next to the Volunteer Fire Department)

Staff Spotlight for November

Mrs. Maione - CBSS Teacher

Hometown: Bear Grass, NC

Favorite restaurant: Melting Pot

City you want to visit the most: Venice

Name of your favorite elementary school teacher: Mrs. Griffin

Where did you go to college? St. Andrews Presbyterian College, Laurinburg, NC

Where did you work before Fairview? 1 year Scotland HS, 1 year Carmel Middle School, 5 years Idlewild Elementary, 4 years Poplin Elementary

Why did you become a teacher? It wasn't the original plan! I substituted for a few months after graduation in addition to being an assistant coach for the college basketball team I played on, and fell in love with Special Education and self contained classrooms. My college had a large population of students with physical and cognitive disabilities that I was involved with and I had always enjoyed working with kids and adults with disabilities. My first full time position fell in my lap, I completed lateral entry requirements and 12 years later I am still here!

Favorite thing to do outside of school: Crafting, Home Decor, Photography

Most rewarding part of being a teacher? To see my students make progress on many aspects of their development, whether it is academic or functional in nature.

Favorite sport/team to watch on TV: NY Islanders hockey

Silliest fact about you: I write left handed, but I do everything else right handed.

Volunteer Spotlight for November

Marcey Cuthbertson

Marcey has 3 children, including a 3rd grader at Fairview. She has taken on the role of the Spirit Night coordinator and has done a fantastic job! She is always happy to help with any event at the school, including our recent Monster Mash.

She is always smiling and we are so happy to have her as a volunteer!
