dress code	10 min	Mr. Sanders/Mrs. Cassada	Mr. Sanders has visited a few schools in the cluster over the past few weeks. He saw a more relaxed feel at the elementary/high schools. He looked at the past agendas to create the draft of the dress code. Grade levels will still wear a grade level color - TBA. PE dress code will also be addressed with a conversation with PE teachers.
School Safety	10 min	Mr. Sanders	197 participated with walk out today - 6 th , 7 th and 8 th graders participated Students do not receive punishment for walking out. Students gathered in prayer. Members of the Beta club were talked to about school safety. Students were given notecards of what the students said about school safety. Random group of notecards were shared. Students are very passionate about keeping their cell phones and

			rightfully so. However students texting parents/calling parents can cause a bigger issue. Stronger connections with students and private with student information. Communication with students about issues that arise to help set their minds at ease. Ideas for safe school - metal detectors, buzzing people into the school. Floor was opened up and the idea suggested: another resource officer. Referral Data - 180 referrals, 548 days given for OSS currently seeing an increase in behaviors. May submit a 45 day packet for suggestion for suspension beyond 10 day suspensions. There have been 4 students recommended this year. Mr. Sanders has to present the information from the packet and the decision is then made. If a parent appeals, the request goes to the board. Data was shared at principals at meeting about the middle schools data across the county. EU is #7 out of 9 schools in terms of the number of referrals. We are a school that reports, does not try to hide information. Mental health professionals are here for support, counselors are necessary in some opinions - counselors spend more of their time with non-counseling duties.
Grading Policy	15 min	Mr. Sanders	No specific grading policy creates issues for
