

NC Pre-K is a state program high-quality program designed to strengthen four-year-old student's academic and social skills. The free program focuses on five developmental domains based on NC Foundations for Early Learning and Development. Children must be four on August 31, 2020 and the family must meet income guidelines. Details at www.theAllianceforChildren.org under NC Pre-K.

The UCPS Title I Pre-K program is a full-day program designed to provide a rich, child-centered literacy-focused program to ensure all children enter kindergarten ready to learn. To be eligible for the free program, students must demonstrate a need for education experience as indicated on the state-approved pre-kindergarten screening. Applicants must be four years old on or before Aug. 31, 2020.
